Plague is attacking a larger proportion of Europeans than formerly here. Scarcely a case outside of the working and nursing staffs was attacked in 1894, and the same remark applies to nearly the same extent to subsequent years. This year, however, the cases have been more numerous; and we believe the medical men have no satisfactory explanation to offer for this fact. The sad death of Sister Frances has been followed by the illness of Sister Gertrude. and the indisposition of Sister Catherine. We have now to-day the sad duty of recording the name of Mr Lindsay S. Crawford (Messrs Lane, Crawford and Co.), whose young life has been cut off after only two days illness. Mr Crawford felt feverish on Monday, and had a sharp attack the same afternoon, but he was not teken to Hospital until yesterday morning. He died at three o'clock this morning, and the greatest sympathy is felt for his parents, who are at present in Japan. His funeral took place this afternoon in the Happy Valley and a very large number of: mourners gathered together to see the last rites (paid to young Crawford. THE WAR.

THE CABLE INTERRUPTION.

· A FALSE ALARM. Telegraphic communication with Manila which was interrupted on Monday has not yet been restored, and until the arrival of the despatch-vessel we are not able to give our readers authortic information regarding the bombardment. We have received telegraphic despatelés from shome indicating that the only information received there has been through the medium of the Spanish despatches, and it is presumed that immediately after the Spaniards had telegraphed home to Madrid the surrender of the city, they had cut the cable, and stopped further telegraphic communication. Inquiries instituted regarding the terruption do not support the idea that has been advanced that the cable may have been injured in the engagement. Last ovening it was freely stated in town that the Spanish flagship Reina Cristing was sunk and that other vessels of the Spanish fleet were either disabled or found belief that Great Britain would be at not been divalged. We understand that the top of the tree, and that British in | the Telegraph Companies' Cable ship torests would ever be paramount (in China?) Sherard Osborne is not at present in Philippine waters, and it therefore may be some time before we are placed in telegraphic communication with Manila.

It is evident, however, from Renter's tolegram, which we publish to-day, that the day, referring to the possibility of Civil Spaniards have telegraphed home a not very rosy account of the disaster. Reuter, believing that we are in possession of the in which the Spanish honour and Spanish full details, only ventures on an account of the effect of the American victory, and the at Madrid were, he said, exerting every ineffect of the press comments.

The Hugh McCultoch was expected to arrive this morning with despatches from the Commodore Commanding the U.S. fleet, and a rumour having been in circulation that the dispatch vessel was sighted the U.S. Consul-General Mr Wildman, the Vice-Consul, and a number of press representatives had a nice little cas in a launch out to Lyemun Pasa, but no dispatch boat was in view. The crew of a little American steamer, the Dosing, lying at Causewaybay, from the profusion of bunting she was displaying evidently have no doubts respecting the American victory and wish to celebrate it right loyally.

H.M.S. Immortalite was prepared for sea to-day, and left for Manila at four o'clock. She will probably relieve the Linnet, which will steam to Hongkong, with despatches.

April 7th .- The Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria proposes that the Cubana ested with autonomy similar to that which exists in Egypt; Spain receiving tribute and America being entrusted with powers similar to those which are exercised in Egypt by Great Britain.

President M Kinley has decided to delay sending his message to Congress regarding the Cuban situation until Monday next. One reason assigned for this is that a message has been received from Mr Lee, the American Consul at Hayana, to the effect that it is impossible to remove the two thousand Americans in Cuba until Sunday. and that the President's message might Monday. precipitate' a massacre: Another account bints that the postponement is due to President M Kinley having learned that Her Wilkinson and Grist) appeared for the deput to flight. This he did later in the day and offered 25 notes of $50 cach and 50 notes of $25 each, a total of $2,550, with a request for change. After some haggling the price was ngreed upon, and the Kling handed over 236 sovereigns. Shortly afterwards he became termented with doubts as to the genuineness of the notes and took some of them to the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, who declared them to be forgeries. Search was made of all the baggage belonging to Grosse, but nothing was found, until Inspector Bourno asked for a small trunk with a patent spring lock to be opened. Grosse immediately protested; stoutly denied that its belonged to him, and challenged the right of the detectives to interfere with it, as it belonged to his cabin mate Schultz. The latter was immediately sent for, and on being shown the box at once denied all knowledge of it. Grosse was accordingly asked to produce his keys, and eventually the box was opened, when it was seen to contwin asserted bundles of notes laid flat in the box in piles of about $1,000 each. A suspicious movement on the part of Schultz led the detectives to search him for arms, and a lowled revolver was found in his possession, a revolver not loaded being taken use. from Grosse.
